

Fabrice LE SACHÉ

Vice-President of Medef in charge of Europe,
Founder and Chairman of Aera Group,

Personal Information

Born : Septembre 1, 1982

Education

- LLM in Comparative International Law, University of San Diego School of Law
- Master's in Public International Law, Paris II Panthéon-Assas University
- Diploma in International Relations, Institute of Advanced International Studies, University of Paris-Sorbonne

Professional Experience

Fabrice Le Saché is the Founder and Chairman of Aera Group, a company specializing in environmental product trading (recycled plastics, green electricity, biofuels, CO₂ emissions, etc.), with an origination portfolio of 60 projects across 25 African countries. Fabrice has structured over €500 million in transactions with leading counterparties in commodity trading, investment funds, energy trading companies, banks, and industrial companies, primarily in the US, Canada, Australia, Singapore, UK, and Switzerland. Aera Group generated revenues of €34.7 million in 2024 (www.aera-group.fr)

Public and Elected Roles

- Vice President of the national Medef
- Member of the Medef Executive Council
- Member of the Board of Directors of MedefI, the international branch of Medef
- Chair of the SME and Entrepreneurship Committee at BusinessEurope
- Chairman of Immobilière 3F, the largest social housing entity in France, serving 300,000 employees and households